Hi Chris,

Hope you are hanging in there. Looks pretty good. I think I understand the point in 6 about stream channelization and talking to regulatory.

I made a few suggested edits. Let me know if I'm not getting the comment on 7.

I am out all next week on vacation. Give me a call this afternoon anytime if you'd like to chat/finish this up today.

Thanks,

Michele

Michele,

It took me longer than anticipated, but I have drafted a response that I would like you to review. It is not exactly everything we discussed and I have struggled with this draft. Please let me know if you have any questions or would like to discuss.

Thank you,
